34. Apologies for Absence Councillor Barry Parsons (DCC) and Councillor Phil Pennington (Torridge Council)

35. Declarations of Interest None

36. Public Participation Brenda Mills reminded members that they had previously objected to the application at item 37.a because of the poor drainage and that this had not been remedied.

37. Planning:

- a. Application: 1/0505/2019/FUL. The Old Village Store, Retention of storage building - re submission of 1/0339/2018/FUL
Following a thorough discussion of the revised plans and consideration of the Planning Inspectorate report from December 2018, it was proposed by George Heywood, seconded by Barbara Babb that the application should be supported subject to the applicant dealing with the inadequate drainage affecting the wall on which it is built and to prevent surface water flowing onto the adjacent footpath and highway. The proposal was carried by 3 votes to 1.
- b. Application: 1/0516/2019/FUL, Thorne Farm, Alterations and extension to existing dwelling - supported unanimously

There being no further business, the meeting closed at 6:45 pm
